

Call for participation in the NIJL/EAJRS Kuzushi-ji Workshop in February 2019

Organised by
- NIJL (National Institute of Japanese Literature)
- EAJRS (European Association of Japanese Resource Specialists)

Hosted by
- Institut des hautes études japonaises (IHEJ), Collège de France
- Centre de recherche sur les civilisations de l'Asie orientale (CRCAO), Centre national de la recherche scientifique (CNRS)

The NIJL/EAJRS Kuzushi-ji Workshop, regularly held at various places in Europe since 2011, will take place in Paris in 2019. The workshop is free of charge. If you wish to apply for the workshop, please fill in the attached application form and send it as an email attachment by 16 December 2018 to the following two organisers:

kaoru.baba@college-de-france.fr
masako.hasegawa@guimet.fr

In the subject line of your email, please input the following term: Kuzushiji2019

Information of the workshop

DATE	Wednesday, 6-Friday, 8 February 2019
VENUE	Salle 4, Collège de France, 5 place Marcellin Berthelot, Paris 75005
LANGUAGE	Japanese (No translation is provided)
TARGET AUDIENCE	librarians, curators, scholars and graduate students
TEACHING LEVEL	intermediate (certain degree of knowledge and experiences required)
SPEAKERS (both are from NIJL)	Professor YAMAMOTO Kazuaki, specialist for the literature of the Edo period Associate Professor ŌTA Naohiro, historian of the Edo period, specialist for the archival studies

The number of participants is limited to 20. If there are more than 20 applications, selection will be made taking account of the contents of the application form and relevance to your job/research.

Detailed information of this workshop will be sent to the selected participants by the end of this year.

At the workshop, you will obtain practical knowledge of kuzushi-ji, and first-hand experience in the reading of historical documents and printed books of the Edo period. Some of the materials to be used in this workshop are from the libraries in Paris.

There will be three sessions every day; one in the morning and two in the afternoon, which make nine sessions for the whole workshop. One session will be one hour and half.

If you require further information of this workshop, please contact the local organisers given above.

