- Private Collection of late Kazutaka Unno, Honorary Professor of Osaka University

Research Center for the History of Sino-Japanese Relations:

Founded in 1995 at the occasion of 50th anniversary of WWII's end by Japanese Ministry of Foreign Affairs to support for historical research, including the collection and cataloging of historical documents and support for researchers, to enable everyone to face squarely to the facts of history. This project has ended in 2004 after 10 years activity, and all the resources were moved to NICHIBUNKEN in February.
