Originally set up by the National Museum, now used by more than 20 other institutions
元来国立博物館によって設定。今ではもっとして他の20機関で使用。

The screenshot shows the homepage of the esbirky.cz digital archive. At the top, there's a search bar with the placeholder "Jaký předmět si přejete najít?" (What object do you want to find?) and a "HLEDAT" (Search) button. Below the search bar are four categories: "instituce" (institution), "typ sbírky" (collection type), "materiál" (material), and "místa původu" (place of origin). On the left, there's a sidebar with links for "instituce", "typ sbírky", "materiál", "místo původu", "datace", "rébusy", "partneri projektu", "způsob užití", "kontakt", "o esbirkách", and "vložit předmět". There's also a "Sdílet" (Share) button. The main content area shows a search result for "Cesta do Japonska 1906" (Travel to Japan 1906) under "Hlouchovy kolorované fotografie" (Hlouch's colored photographs). It includes a breadcrumb trail: Náprstkové muzeum (Národní muzeum) > Japonská sbírka Joe Hlouchy. Below that, it says "Předměty v kategorii Japonská sbírka Joe Hlouchy: (zobrazit informace)" and "Nalezeno 776 záznamů." There are dropdown menus for sorting ("řazení: Náhodně") and page size ("počet na stránce: 20"), with a link to "předchozí stránka strana: 9 následující stránka". A grid of 20 thumbnail images representing various Japanese scenes from the collection.
