- ▶ Watase Media Arts Center

Since its inception in 1985, the Japanese American National Museum has chronicled more than 130 years of Japanese American history—from the first Issei generation through the World War II incarceration to the present day.

MUSEUM COLLECTIONS ONLINE
Selected highlights from our permanent collection of over 60,000 unique artifacts, documents, and photographs.

HIRASAKI NATIONAL RESOURCE CENTER
The Manabi and Sumi Hirasaki National Resource Center (HNRC) was established to ensure that the story of Japanese Americans is accessible to everyone. The HNRC provides both onsite and online reference and research support and serves as the gateway to the permanent collection.

WATASE MEDIA ARTS CENTER
The Frank H. Watase Media Arts Center (MAC) promotes thoughtful exploration, understanding and appreciation of America's pluralistic society through its programs of media documentation and preservation, production and presentation, and education and training.

Estelle Ishigo Collection

(94.195) The online collection of Estelle Peck Ishigo (1899-1990) covers life in the Pomona detention center in California and in the Heart Mountain, Wyoming camp during World War II. Includes 120 drawings, sketches, and watercolors.

Jack Iwata Collection

(93.102) The online collection of photographer Jack Iwata includes 166 photographs and copy negatives taken at Manzanar and Tule Lake concentration camps between 1942 and 1945.
