

North American Coordinating Council on Japanese Library Resources NCC

Reports on

1. Third Decade Conference in Philadelphia, March 22, 23, 2010
Click to edit Master subtitle style

NCC Chair: Keiko Yokota-Carter, 2010 -2013
(University of Washington Libraries)

2. Image Use Protocol Workshop

Fabiano Takashi Rocha

(Univeristy of Tronto Libraries)

Third Decade Conference in Philadelphia,
March 22, 23, 2010
Charting New Partnerships to Support Japanese Studies
in the Global Information Society

- 115 participants from the US, Canada, Japan, France, England, Italy.
- Background:

Discussions

- Future needs of faculty from various regions, institutions, and disciplines. Focus on smaller institutions.
- Information literacy / undergraduate education
- Information communication technology (ICT) to connect librarians with users
- Japanese Digital resources
- Rare and hard to find materials
- Collection development
 - NCC's Multi-volume set grant
 - National collection development needs
- Global delivery project with Japanese university libraries
- International collaboration beyond North America - Japan

Global Collaboration

- Global Junior Librarian Training in Toronto, Canada, in March, 2012 depending on funding (Canadian librarians initiative)
- Japanese Digital resources including E-books
- Rare and hard to find materials – a global list ?
- Collection development
 - ☾ Needs of international collection development
- GIF (Global Interlibrary Loan Framework) with the libraries around the world
- EAJRS Liaison to NCC (unofficial position)

Council of East Asia Libraries (CEAL), March 29, 30,
Association for Asia Studies (AAS)
International Convention of Asia Scholars (ICAS)
Conference, March 31–April 3, 2011

Honolulu, Hawaii !

NCC's plans for the AAS/ICAS conference;

1. Workshop for faculty without Japanese Studies Librarians
2. Round Table on Japanese E-Books in libraries world-wide

Tentative participants:

National Diet Library, Publishers, Japanese faculty, EAJRS more !